

Studiobau is an architecture and design firm based in Milan.

After ten years consultancy of private, small and medium enterprises, and of public estates, in the fields of architecture and design, our firm has achieved the needed skills for working at the intersection of design, brand and business. Careful with the growing sensitiveness of the consumers to trend, visual image, fashion, interaction, we help companies to use design as a tool for strenghtening their presence on the market and for improving their turnover.

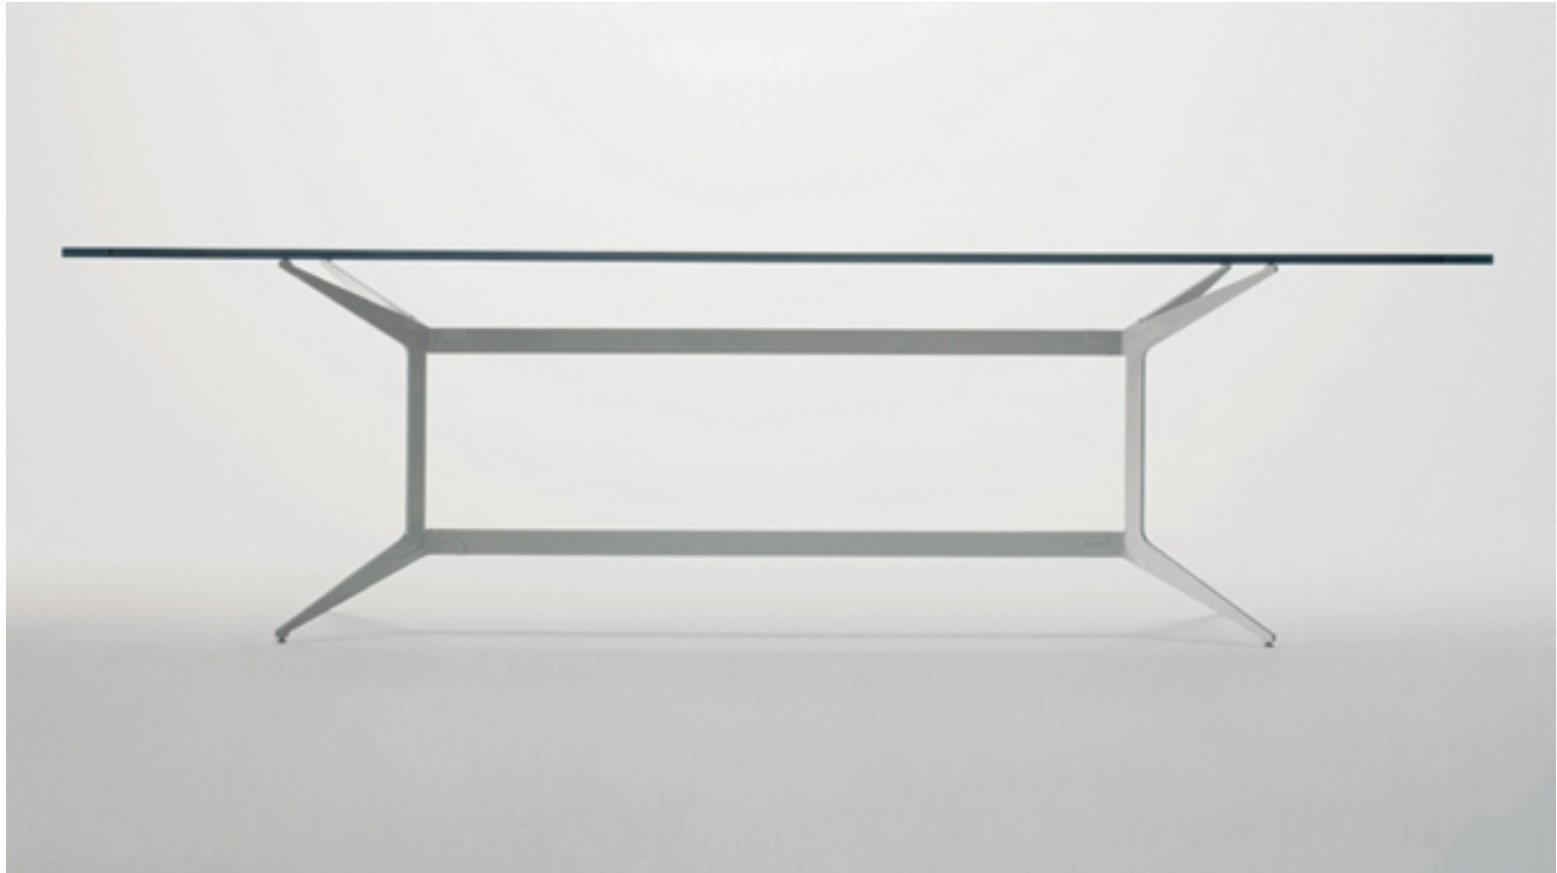

Based in Milan, strategical hub of the most rich and industrialized area of the country, our firm can support ELP clients in entering new business opportunities in Italy.
